Azalea Garden Club Meets

With Mrs. Monty Monts. Mrs. Monty Monts entertained the Azalea Garden Club in her home Thursday, Nov. 17. Vice president, Mrs. Talbot Field Jr., had charge of the meeting in the absence of the president.

One new member, Mrs. Ralph Emerson, was welcomed to the group. Plans were made for the Christmas dinner to be held on Dec. 11. Mrs. Kelly Bryant distributed new yearbooks to the members.

Mrs. Monts gave an interesting program on the care of African violets and gladiolus, which was enjoyed by the club. Fall leaves, pumpkins, gourds and bronze mums decorated the home.

Petit fours and coffee were served to 11 for refreshments.

He Runs to Tires
— She to Church

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE
Dear Helen:
When my husband and I married we agreed that neither would force the other the opposite way. He could do as he pleased—which was run to fires, by being a volunteer fire chief. I could go to church. It took me eight and a half years to find out it wasn't always fires he was running to. We separated last Easter. Now it is time to decide whether we shall divorce or separate legally. My husband says we never had any life together and that since I neither drank nor danced, he had to find his fun elsewhere. We have two children, 7 and 8 years old. They bawl at mention of divorce. They blame me and, in a way, they are right. I tried, after seeing my pastor, to make our marriage work. But it was too late. When I attempted to kiss my husband, he pushed my face away.

Do you think if I held out he would come back, or do you think the children and I would be better off to let him go? He was always decent, everyone liked him. I'm afraid my mistake was in marrying at all. I like going to church best. I teach Sunday School. I also like to swim, picnic, ice skate and

Chas. Tompkins Has Program at Rotary Club

There were 29 members and two guests present at the regular luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club Tuesday, Nov. 21. Robert Gibson gave the invocation. There were 11 members absent due to deer season.

Chas. Tompkins delivered the program. He discussed fatalities of wild life on the public highway by autos. The cause of a large number of these accidents is due to speed and this also applies to death and injuries to people.

President Bill Oates said the program for Nov. 22 will be an address by an exchange student from Hungary.

Rev. Vernon Hammond of Gurdon was a visiting Rotarian. Jim Daley, Hope, was a guest of J. V. Fore.

Prescott Garden Club Has Chrysanthemum Tea

The home of Mrs. J. B. Hesterly was the setting for the annual chrysanthemum tea of the Prescott Garden Club on Tuesday afternoon.

In the entrance hall a table held a gold container filled with bronze mums and foliage. On the mantel in the living room was a gold oblong container holding a mass arrangement of white mums and the coffee table was graced with a unique arrangement of catpaws, yellow mums and autumn leaves in a black vase. At other vantage points were vases of orchids, lavender, gold and maroon mums.

Club members voted on the most attractive arrangements and Mrs. R. T. Murry won first place; Mrs. J. H. Wilson and Mrs. Lester Steed tied for second, and Mrs. N. N. Daniel and Mrs. J. O. Coleman tied for third place.

Yearbook covers were judged and first place went to Mrs. R.

play games. I guess I never grew up. I hate house work. — Mixed up

Dear Mixed-up: You must be a nice person for honest thinking shines through your self-appraisal. The initial mistake, of course, was in you and your husband each going your separate way. Congeniality is the basis of marriage, and I'm speaking of the physical as well as the mental aspects. Whether or not you can overcome your distaste for the physical is a question. A psychiatrist might help you here.

If you and your husband had only one another to consider, I would say divorce. But where there are children, divorce is a last resort. For their sakes you and he should make one last supreme effort to salvage your marriage. If the effort is to be successful, you've got to meet him half way. Learn to dance! Go partying with him! Have fun! But the effort mustn't be one-sided. He should ice skate, swim, picnic and play games with you and the children. And—if only to prove his good intentions—attend your church once in awhile. Show him this column with your letter and my reply. It may help.

Mrs. McKenzie Entertains Wednesday Bridge Club

Mrs. H. H. McKenzie entertained the 37 Contract Bridge Club and the Wednesday Bridge Club at a dessert-bridge at her home on Tuesday. On the living room mantel was a bowl of yellow mums and a vase of white mums adorned the desk. The dining table held a centerpiece of bronze mums and fall leaves in a silver container. The Thanksgiving motif was carried out in the tables, and the dessert course. The tables were centered with turkeys designed with apples, raisins and olives that rested on a base of bronze mums and fall leaves.

Mrs. O. G. Hirst won the prize for the 37 Contract Club and Mrs. Allen tied with high score for the Wednesday Bridge Club.

Mrs. Chantelle Complimented. On Tuesday, the Community Youth Center was the scene for a pink and blue shower given by Mrs. Clifton Cummings, Mrs. Willie Lambert, Mrs. Earl Menner, Mrs. Carol Lambert and Mrs. Bill McCain of Texarkana complimenting Mrs. Warner Chantelle of Jefferson, Texas. Arrangements of white and pink mums decorated the room.

The honoree's chair was marked with a miniature doll encircled by small rattlers and pink and blue ribbon and she was given a pink carnation corsage. The lovely gifts were placed in a white basket decorated with rose buds.

Mrs. Ralph Fore, Mrs. Billy Wayne Jarvis and Mrs. Chantelle won the prizes in the games directed by Mrs. Menner.

Thirty guests were served daily refreshments in the pink and blue motif from a table covered with a lace cloth over yellow. A pink tree decorated with miniature baby items in a pink vase formed the centerpiece.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinking) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Hio-Dyne)—discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H. At all drug counters.

Confident Hogs Roll Right Into Cotton Bowl

By WICK TEMPLE
Associated Press Sports Writer

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks have ridden a "confident smile" and a Southern drawl into the Cotton Bowl and the talk is that this colorful team is still on the way up.

The smile and drawl belong to 35-year-old coach Frank Broyles, who in three seasons at Arkansas has twice led the Southwest Conference championship.

He has used speed and savvy as his main weapons, but most important he has talked his Razorbacks into believing they can win.

The Hogs beat Texas Tech Saturday 34-6 to clinch the Cotton Bowl hot spot and at least a share of the Southwest Conference title. Rice can tie for the crown by beating Baylor in Waco Saturday.

Broyles says he has no preference as far as a Cotton Bowl opponent goes, but he does rule out Mississippi, a team that beat the Hogs 10-7. Arkansas probably will bring 25,000 fans with it into the Cotton Bowl Jan. 2.

A crowd of about 10,000 greeted the Hogs when they landed at the Fort Smith airport Saturday night.

It is the first time Arkansas has worn the crown two years in succession. And this Razorback team shouldn't mature until next year.

There are only eight senior regulars on this year's squad, and most of the headlines go to sophomores and juniors. Of the team's two fine quarterbacks, George McKinney is a junior and Billy Moore is a sophomore.

The top fullback, Lance Alworth, is a junior, as is starting fullback Curtis Cox and the top pass-catching end, Jim Collier.

Arkansas doesn't have a lot of great football players, although center-linebacker Wayne Harris is touted as the school's greatest man at his position.

The team is composed of smart average football players who know their jobs perfectly and who are never surprised at what an opponent comes up with.

The Razorbacks already are talking about becoming the second Southwest Conference team in history to win three championships in a row. Texas A&M did it in 1939-40-41.

And even Broyles has to admit their outlook for next year is better than was their outlook for this season.

"We feared complacency this year," Broyles said after clinching his 8-2 record with the victory over Tech. "We kept asking the boys, 'Is this going to be another of those years when Arkansas rests on its laurels?'"

Arkansas football history has showed that a Razorback team never put two great seasons together. Last year the Hogs went 9-2 including a victory over Georgia Tech in the Gator Bowl. They tied with Texas and Texas Christian for the conference crown.

Broyles thinks the turning point of the 1960 season came in the Texas game in Austin. The Hogs

Guernsey in Triple Win Over Emmet

Guernsey capped three games over Emmet Friday night. The Junior boys won 30 to 30 with Norvell losing in 12 for Guernsey and the Faulkner boys and Lumpkin tied at 8 each for the Emmet boys.

The Guernsey senior boys downed Emmet's boys 56 to 39 with Stephens making 15 and Emmet's Coffey losing in 14.

The Guernsey senior girls edged Emmet 30 to 26 with Bristow making 19 points for the winners and Matthews of Emmet making 20 points.

Field Goal Gives Win to Tech

Wayne Parmley's 34-yard field goal that gave Arkansas Tech a 3-0 victory over State Teachers stands as the difference in the just completed Arkansas Intercollegiate conference football race.

It enabled Tech to win the title with an 8-0 record, romp to a perfect 10-0 season, and held State Teachers in second place with 6-1.

State Teachers wallowed Henderson Saturday night 34-0 for second place in the conference fight. Tech won the title last week by beating Ouachita. It added a 600 homecoming triumph over College of the Ozarks Saturday to complete the season.

In other games last week, Southern State humbled Arkansas A&M 48-13, and Hendrix beat Ouachita 47-6.

Henderson winds up in third place with a 5-2 record and Southern State is fourth with 5-3. Only the top four teams in the league managed winning seasons.

ASTC and Henderson were tied for second place going into the final game. Teachers fullback Walter Ayres ran 1 and 13 yards for touchdowns, fullback Peggo Ferguson ran 19 yards, fullback Bill Tiner ran 9 yards and fullback Bob Jagers went 44 yards. Dennis Wewers kicked four of 5 extra points.

Henderson threatened only once — near the end of the game — and time ran out on the Reddies on the ASTC one yard line.

Tech untied Ozarks with nine easy touchdowns and scored a 10th that was called back. Ozarks was ending a winless season. Halfback Jim Bryant scored twice for Tech on punt returns of 68 and 61 yards. Quarterback B.J. Moore ran 9 and 6 yards for touchdowns and the other five scores were divided among five Wonder Boys.

Parmley, who kicked the field goal that beat Teachers, booted six of six conversions.

Southern State used the running and passing of quarterback Lanny had just lost to Baylor 28-14, their only conference defeat of the year. The were down 14-0 to Texas, but they roared back and junior Mickey Cissell kicked a field goal in the last seconds to win, 24-23.

Cissell kicked another last-second field goal to beat Rice, 3-0. Arkansas' success is an endorsement of Broyles' philosophy of football. Razorback publicist Bob Cheyne, a close personal friend of Broyles, describes the young coach this way:

"He talks to the boys and makes good sense. He's inspiring without being emotional. He talks you into thinking you can win."

McKinney passed or three touchdowns against bewildered Tech Saturday. He zoomed a 61-yarder to Lance Alworth in the first quarter, passed 22 yards to Jim Collier in the second, and 44 yards to sophomore end Brent Shinnall in the fourth period.

The Razorbacks were intent on scoring early and not giving the Raiders a chance to get that upset feeling. The first Arkansas touchdown came after Dean Garrett recovered a fumble. Then an intercepted pass set up the pass to Alworth.

Tech's great center, E.J. Hojab, intercepted a pass and ran 40 yards for a touchdown and Tech never had a chance after that.

It was the best offensive job the Porks have done all year.

Mad Scramble Develops for National Title

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

A mad scramble for the national college football championship suddenly developed today out of the demise of Missouri with more than a half-dozen teams remaining in the running for the coveted title.

Last week Missouri had one foot in the throne room door. The Tigers had rampaged through nine opponents and needed only to get past twice-beaten Kansas to take the crown.

But Kansas plastered the Tigers 23-7. So Missouri finished with a 9-1 record. So did Washington, Iowa showed 8-1 as did Minnesota, Navy and Auburn, Mississippi, the only one of the group that has not been defeated has an 8-0-1 record with one game to go.

So nothing really can be settled until after the Mississippi-Missouri game Saturday.

Missouri, of course, is not out of it. The Tigers just happened to be the last of the big boys to bite the dust. Iowa was ranked No. 2 in The Associated Press poll last week behind Missouri and looked powerful in blanking Notre Dame, 28-0.

But what of Minnesota? The Gophers whipped Wisconsin, 12-7, in their finale to tie Iowa for the Big Ten title. Further, Minnesota was the only team to beat Iowa during the season.

Washington didn't enhance its reputation by barely edging Washington State, 8-7. Navy was idle, waiting for the big one against Army. Saturday, white Auburn clobbered Florida State 57-21.

The bowl situation is just as confused. Five teams have been lapped officially — Washington for the Rose Arkansas for the Cotton, Missouri for the Orange, Florida for the Gator, and Penn State for the Liberty.

The Rose Bowl appears ready to break its long tradition — there is no more official contract — with the Big Ten and invite Navy if the Middles beat Army. That would leave Minnesota and Iowa, both hoping to make the westward trek, out in the cold.

Plenty Tickets to Cotton Bowl

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — There will be plenty of tickets for Arkansas fans for the Jan. 2 Cotton Bowl game in which Arkansas will be in the Southwest Conference host spot.

Tickets are $5.50 each plus a 25 cent mailing fee. University of Arkansas officials said they would have a large supply, possibly over 25,000 duceats.

About 22,000 tickets were sold in Arkansas to the 1955 Cotton Bowl game, Arkansas' last appearance in the classic.

Tickets can be ordered from the Cotton Bowl Athletic Department at Fayetteville or from the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association, PO Box 7185, Inwood Station, Dallas, 9, Tex.

Shofner to blast A&M. Shofner ran 25,1 and 87 yards for touchdowns and passed 42 yards to end Sonny Whittington to set up one touch down. Halfback Dave Alpo ran 1 and 5 yards for Southern State scores.

Cissell Is Top Scorer for Porks

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — A fullback who didn't cross the goal line is the leading scorer of the Cotton Bowl-bound Arkansas Razorbacks.

And the Porks owe that bowl berth and at least a tie for the Southwest Conference championship in large measure to their top scorer, fourth string fullback Mickey Cissell.

Thirteen Porks scored touchdowns, but Cissell was the top point-maker with 27 markers on two field goals and 21 extra point kicks.

The Wilson, Ark., sophomore kicked his first collegiate field goal in the last seconds to beat Texas, the pre-season title favorite, 24-23. Two weeks later Rice saw its conference lead vanishing 3-0 on another closing moments boot by Cissell.

Rice still can gain a tie for the crown by beating Baylor Saturday, but Arkansas clinched the Cotton Bowl spot with a 34-6 trouncing of Texas Tech Saturday.

Cissell missed a 41-yard conversion try against Tech, only his third failure of the year. His 21 extra points in 24 kicks leads the league and is only one shy of the school record of 22 conversions set by Jim Reichert in 1947.

The Razorbacks' leading touchdown maker was end James Collier, who caught three TD passes and recovered a fumble for a fourth.

Quarterback George McKinney passed for nine touchdowns, the most for a Razorback in at least 20 years, but crossed the goal line only once himself. McKinney's alternate, Billy Moore, tallied three times to tie with halfback Lance Alworth in point production.

Football

With all the speculation in the air, the major bowls could wind up like this:

Rose—Washington vs. Navy
Cotton—Arkansas vs. Oregon
Orange—Missouri vs. Duke
Sugar—Mississippi vs. Rice
Gator—Florida vs. Tennessee
Gothen—Syracuse vs. Alabama
Liberty—Penn State vs. Tennessee

Miss Moreno Will Change Her Roles

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Why oh why, thinks Rita Moreno, "do Latin girls on the screen always have to be tempestuous sexpots?" I give up, why?

"It's a stereotype," continues the miss with a mission. "It's also stupid. It's every Latin woman a sexpot? Of course not. They're just the same as other women."

"Yet how do script writers portray Latin girls? They have us flashing our eyes, flaring our nostrils, gnashing our teeth, wiggling our ears as well as our derrieres. It's silly. It's not only silly, it's exhausting. If any woman acted that way she'd be a total wreck in no time."

Rita wondered how the film conception arose. "It undoubtedly dates back to the late Lupe Velez, whose final days were occupied in grinding out a series of 'Mexican spiffire' movies."

"What a terrible fate," Rita sympathized. "I'd like to have known her. I'm sure she wasn't really a spiffire, but a warm human being."

In her earlier Hollywood career, Rita herself got caught in the spiffire category. She may have contributed to it through a somewhat gay social life. She seems different now. Perhaps it was her friendship with Marlon Brando, perhaps two years of intensive dramatic training. At any rate, she seems level-headed and adjusted to the problems of pursuing a career in Hollywood.

"I no longer have the desire to be one of the big, flaming stars," she said. "If I can just do interesting things and fulfill myself as an actress, I'll be happy."

Rita's hopes for her career are considerably brightened by her role in "West Side Story." She sings, she dances, and she acts. "This is the first time I've played a real woman," she commented. "She's a Puerto Rican in New York City, and she likes everything American."

Rita's sympathy with the part

Municipal and State Bonds to Set Marks

NEW YORK (AP)—Exemption from taxes lures the investor. And the urge to provide services and improvements on the city sparks the government agencies. And so the flood of state and municipal bonds may set high marks this year.

The spending will bolster the economy. Also sooner or later it will face taxpayers with the inevitable problem of payment.

In the presidential election the voters took time to approve a record total of state and local bond issues—well over $3 billion of these securities exempt from the federal income tax. In previous elections this year they had approved $2 billion of them also a record for the first nine months of any year.

Because there is a time lag between voting approval of borrowing and actually offering the tax-exempt securities to investors the amount sold this year—in many cases—issues previously approved—will be much higher than the approximately $5½ billion so far voted in 1960 much of which may not hit the market until next year.

In the first 10 months of 1960 sales of state and local bonds is understandable. She was born in Puerto Rico and grew up in Manhattan. She was familiar with the kind of struggle that is portrayed in "West Side Story." She herself made it out of the slums by starting as a dancer early.

Tips Hat to Actress for Service

By DICK WEST
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—I dare say that not many former movie queens would be willing to serve on a government committee which is studying the problems of old people.

Most former movie queens would rather be panelists on "Youth Wants To Know."

So I think we ought to tip our hats to Mary Pickford for performing an unusual public service. She is here this week attending a meeting of the advisory board of the White House Conference on Aging.

It so happens that I began going to movies during the time that Miss Pickford was reigning as "America's Sweetheart" in the days of the silent films. But for some reason I didn't retain a very clear image of her.

Tom Mix I remember very well. And Hoot Gibson. And William S. Hart. But Miss Pickford didn't get through to me. I must have been too young to be interested in girls.

Bats Her Eyes
I seem to remember that she was an actress of the eye-batting school. Every time that something bad or good happened on the screen, there would be a close-up of Miss Pickford batting her eyes. But I may have her confused with Lillian Gish.

At any rate, it was that old nostalgic feeling that drew me to a news conference held by Miss Pickford. You might say that I went to the conference on aging in hopes of recapturing my own youth.

I don't know how old Miss Pickford is now—she wouldn't tell us—but I can report that she is still blonde, of fair blue of eye and round of face. She also is still of figure. She had to sit on a book in order to see over the desk.

When I first arrived, I had an uneasy feeling that Miss Pickford was going to do a striptease. She took off her sunglasses and then began undoing her bracelet. But she was only obliging the photographers.

Offers Assistance
She had some trouble with the bracelet clasp and a photographer went over to offer his assistance. "Are you a married man?" Miss Pickford asked, batting her eyes. The photographer withdrew.

Miss Pickford told us that she was no Mary come-lately to the campaign to provide a better life for the elderly. For many years, she has been a trustee of a home for the aged in California.

But she said she personally had "no sense of growing older" and looked upon the aging process as "a waste of time."

"I'm 21 going on 20," she said. Seeing Miss Pickford made me feel better about my own up-pronching birthday. I think I'll go home tonight and watch an old movie on television.

Telephoning Gets Easier and Easier

By JOHN BARBOUR
Associated Press Science Writer
WHIPPANY, N.J. (AP)—Today in some homes in Morris, Ill., a man can dial on the telephone, hang up, and ring every extension phone in the house to call the family to dinner.

And tonight if she and dad are going visiting, they can dial a simple series of numbers and from that moment on every call coming to their home phone will be routed to the house they will visit.

These are just two of the wonders of a telephone system of the future installed today for trial in 50 homes and offices in Morris by the Bell Telephone System.

By 1965, Bell Laboratories officials expect to have the system in production for national use. Eventually 600 Morris users will give this advanced system its first trial. Other services to be added at Morris, or eventually to the national system.

A third party, and perhaps others, will be able to dial into an existing telephone conversation.

Of special interest in homes where teenagers monopolize the telephone, the system will hold incoming calls with a recorded "Please wait" announcement, ringing the busy phone as soon as it is being up.

Bell officials say the new system can handle any new service that can be logically described.

All of these wonders are handled by a new super-quick central office that replaces mechanical devices with thousands of transistors and neon-filled tubes and a photographic electronic memory.

The new central office makes its moves in a matter of microseconds, or millionths of a second. There are as many millions of a second in one minute as there are minutes in about 107 years.

At the heart of the new system is the photographic memory. Its actions are to a large extent set up ahead of time by the instructions in this memory, or book of procedures.

An electronic eye scans the coded instructions on glass photographic plates, learning from these clusters of photographic dots what actions to perform next to complete the call.

If the numbers you dial refer to some specific instruction in the photographic memory, the machine looks up the instruction and handles your call as it was instructed to do.

Amalthea, one of Jupiter's 12 satellites, is slowly spinning closer to the planet. Astronomers estimate the two bodies will collide in 70 or 80 million years.

Thinks U. S. Should Help the Fat Man

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—It is time the federal government did something to help the fat man.

As it is now, nobody does much for the fat man except jeer him.

"Hi, 'Rubby," they say, poking him in the stomach. "Aren't you putting on a little weight?"

Yet fat people are vital to the American economy. Since we have some 25 to 30 million overweight people, they outnumber farmers or manufacturers by a large margin.

Congress regularly rushes to the rescue of the farmer with crop benefit payments and to the aid of the manufacturer with protective tariffs.

But the only government help fat people get is a periodic warning from the U.S. Public Health Service that if they don't lose weight they probably won't live as long.

"This is not enough. If fat people are a great natural resource—and they are—they should be treated as such. The government should encourage them to reduce by offering them solid inducements, just as it helps the farmer and the manufacturer and the oil well owners.

For example, why not a fat deduction allowance on your income tax?

Under this plan your doctor would indicate how much overweight you were, and give you a diet. Then when you went to pay your income tax, the collector would give you a 1 per cent reduction for each pound you had lost in recognition of your valiant and patriotic effort to save a worthwhile part of America—namely yourself.

And why shouldn't Congress strike off medals to honor them as such? The government should encourage them to reduce by offering them solid inducements, National Waisline!

A federal fat control program such as herein outlined may sound like another raid on the Treasury by another special privileged group.

Actually, it isn't. Unlike the federal farm surplus program, it probably would more than pay its own way—because it would keep millions of former fat people alive longer, paying taxes years beyond their expected span.

One thing you can say about any one who opposes this program of national recognition.

He ain't a fat man. The fat man already gets enough advice. What he needs is real help with a weighty problem.

Leaves Money for Missionaries

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—A woman thwarted in her ambition to be a missionary has left her entire $50,000 estate so that, as she said in a letter, God's call for missionaries could be answered.

Over 50 years ago Miss Anna H. Fox felt that God had called her to be a missionary. But she stayed home to take care of her mother who was ill.

She taught school in Tennessee and Georgia all of her life and on Nov. 8 died at the age of 80.

Her will for probate Wednesday directed that her real and personal property be used to set up the Anna H. Fox Foreign Mission Trust Fund.

Oven Dishes To Please All

Good oven meals are fun to prepare and bound to please the whole family. They're easy on the family budget, too. Here's a new oven dish from the Borden Kitchen which combines process cheese food, rich in the high quality proteins of milk, with halibut and a tasty combination of chopped vegetables and seasonings.

Saucy Fish Main Dish
(Makes eight servings)

2 (12-ounce) packages frozen halibut steaks or fillets, defrosted
2 tablespoons chopped onion
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
8 1/2 cups Chateau Cheese Sauce

Sprinkle chopped vegetables over fish fillets and roll jelly-roll fashion. Place in buttered baking dish OR—Arrange fish in buttered baking dish and sprinkle chopped vegetables over fish. Pour cheese sauce over fish. Bake in a moderate oven 30 to 35 minutes, or until fish is tender and sauce bubbles. If desired, garnish with parsley.

Chateau Cheese Sauce

2 cups homogenized milk
3/4 cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper

1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 pound, shredded (1/2 two pound pkg.) Chateau Cheese

Pour milk into top of double boiler; sprinkle flour, salt, pepper and Worcestershire sauce over surface of milk; beat with rotary beater until combined. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens. Add cheese; continue cooking sauce, stirring occasionally, until cheese melts and sauce is well blended.

Reds Ready to Take Cuba Completely

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

Underground sources report the Communists are just about ready for a try at driving the final nails into the coffin of what once was free Cuba.

As the Cubans begin to lose their enthusiasm for government by mass meeting, the Communists are moving on two important fronts to consolidate their grip and substitute government by fear and suspicion.

First, the Communists are the inspiration for the organization by the Fidel Castro regime of what appears to be a secret police system closely fashioned on the lines of the Soviet MVD or Stalin's day.

This police setup is reported to go under the name of "O-24" for reasons known best to its organizers. A Czechoslovak Communist who himself is a veteran of the Soviet MVD service is reported to be in complete charge of whipping the network together, so that control eventually will be complete over every aspect of Cuban daily life.

When this organization is in final shape, the Communists can hope Cuba will be as much a satellite of the Soviet Union as Hungary, no matter what label the Castro regime chooses to pin upon itself.

Second, the Communists are quickly enveloping the leadership of the labor unions, and taking steps to insure domination in that field. A new set of regulations, either already adopted or about to be adopted for the control of labor, has been drawn up by the executive of the Cuban Labor Confederation, which more and more is coming under Communist domination.

"Every labor center will become a garrison in which the working class will wage a battle for production," says one of the new regulations, foreshadowing a barracks-like existence for many a Cuban working man.

"In every plant and firm, vigilance must be increased to reduce the danger of acts of sabotage by the enemies of the revolution," says another, in an echo of the ever-wary leaders of the Communist world.

All these things have the ominous sound which has been heard many times before as other Democratic regimes in Europe and Asia were slowly suffocated.

Cuba today, apparently swarms with agents of Communist nations. Their first objective appears to be what Cuban Communist chief Blas Roca has just demanded: "Solidifying the revolution." This means taking the revolution away from Fidel Castro, making him a figurehead for as long as his presence on the scene may be necessary, and running the country to suit the policies of Moscow.

Once the Communists pivot their totalitarian controls into place, the United States can expect a steady stream of trouble in many areas of Central and South America.

Because the calm waters are rich in vitamins, a bay on the southwest coast of Puerto Rico contains millions of microorganisms which glow in the dark. The phenomenon, called bioluminescence, occurs there to a degree found in few other places.

The Australian sea horse is almost invisible when it is in the midst of seaweed because of the leaflike growths on its body.

Will to Live Transcends Broken Body

By EILEEN LARDNER
New Bedford Standard-Times Staff Writer

NEW BEDFORD, Mass. (AP)—Lita Levine of Brooklyn, N.Y., bought a new pair of hands last week.

The story of Lita and her new hands began on the night of Aug. 15, 1958. Northeast Airlines Flight 258—two hours late out of New York because of bad weather—was coming in for a landing on tiny Nantucket Island, off the Massachusetts coast.

Lita, 23, a $73-a-week cashier in a New York brokerage firm, starting a 10-day vacation, fastened her seat belt and smoothed her brown hair with slow, graceful fingers. She deferred reaching for her gloves. It didn't really matter. Soon Lita would not need gloves.

The big twin-engine Convair came down through heavy fog and struck the ground 300 yards short of the runway. It plowed a 500-foot swath through a field of scrub growth and pine trees, then burst into flames.

Seventy-four persons died in the crash. Of 10 survivors, two later died. Lita was one who lived.

"It happened so suddenly," she recalls. "It was as though it were in a dream, as though it were happening to someone else. One minute everything was fine. The next minute I was pinned under something—I didn't know what. That something was an 800-pound engine."

"I knew I was badly hurt," explains Lita. "My arms were crossed in front of me and I could see my fingers burning and raw. Your mind sort of turns off at a time like that."

Lita lay on her back, her hair and head burned, her face and body black with oil and burns. She cried, "I can't see."

A man took a handkerchief and wiped her eyes and face.

"Please don't let me die," she cried and then, as pain swept her, "Kill me."

Thirty men lifting with ropes and hands at last lifted the engine and freed Lita. "We were given superhuman strength," one said afterward.

Lita lost consciousness. She awoke in the Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston.

"When I came to, I couldn't see anything. I thought I was blind. I remember screaming." A physician, understanding her panic, removed bandages momentarily giving Lita a brief blurred glimpse that reassured her.

Hospital records show Lita had second- and third-degree burns over 40 or 50 per cent of her body. Her arms and legs were charred, her fingers black. Her right eyelid was deeply burned and there was some impairment of vision. There was almost complete external destruction of both ears and extensive external skull injuries. Her left kneecap was fractured. She had numerous deep scoop-like cuts.

There were days and weeks under sedation. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Levine, were constantly at her bedside. There followed during the next two years 37 operations. Surgeons tried to save her fingers—and failed.

There came a victory when Lita stood on her good left leg. And, a month later, the worst blow when on Nov. 10, she learned her fingers were gone.

"At first I made myself believe it was a bad dream, that the fingers would grow back on again," she says.

The despairing girl, asking for death, said, "I won't accept it. I don't live without hands. Eighteen hours a day her mother fought a battle of the spirit. In between Lita's father took over, softly speaking hour after hour that she would be all right.

The parents' love won and Lita at last accepted the thought, "I did have a chance; I had to get better."

Doctors cut V-clefts between the stumps of her thumbs and middle fingers. With her maimed hands she could hold a cigarette, or a cup of coffee.

"At last, I could do some things for myself," she says.

On June 29 this year, after 101 weeks, she was discharged. But ahead lay more surgery. She had to have a new right eyelid and lashes. Her brown hair had been replaced with a wig. Her arms and legs were scarred. External portions of her skull, including her forehead, needed more surgery. Her nose had been re-made. One leg is permanently stiff.

A few weeks ago she was awarded a settlement of $375,000 for her injuries.

Now she has plans.

She will shop for dresses for the Boston apartment where she and her parents live while awaiting her further surgery. Maybe she will paint. She was good in art while at school.

She hopes to tour Europe for six months or so.

Her invested trust fund should care for her needs for life. But she hopes to work again in a brokerage house.

And now she has bought some new hands. She will wear rings on them. And gloves. She always liked gloves. She almost reached for her gloves just before the crash.

Dollar Loss Mushroomed Over Years

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Every little bit helps. That's the first reaction in financial and business circles to President Eisenhower's moves to stop some of the outward flow of dollars and gold into foreign hands.

But international bankers note that the major part of the outflow is still untouched.

President Eisenhower has told federal agencies to cut their spending abroad for foreign goods and foreign services. He hopes thereby to save as much as a billion dollars a year. This would leave the loss of dollars and gold still running at more than $3 billion a year.

This loss—known technically as the deficit in the balance of payments—has been building up for several years. It has mushroomed in the last three years.

But it wasn't until the sudden rush of Europeans to buy gold on the London free market a month ago because they thought the U.S. dollar wobbly that the American public paid any attention to the drain on the U.S. Treasury.

Its gold hoard now is down to $18 billion from a high of more than $24 billion. The short term dollar holdings of foreigners come to more than $18 billion. The-
